The Honorable Daniel K. Inouye, Chairman
 Select Committee on Secret Military
 Assistance to Iran and the Contras
 United States Senate
 Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter of 5 January 1987. In accordance with S. Res. 23, let me assure you that we are prepared to cooperate fully with Committee requests for access to documents and other material in the Agency's custody or control that pertain to the matters covered by the Resolution. As you know, we already have furnished a large volume of documents to the Senate Intelligence Committee, and we look forward to working with you and your staff to make the necessary arrangements regarding storage, handling, and accountability of these as well as any additional materials we provide in the future. A similar letter is being provided to Vice Chairman Rudman.

Sincerely,

/s/ Robert M. Gates

Robert M. Gates
 Acting Director of Central Intelligence
